Customer Reviews

This book encapsulates the essence of running a successful recruitment desk. It's easy to read, digestible as a whole, or in bite sized chunks, and it built on practical experience. Read, follow, be successful.

Roy is a globally recognised expert within our industry, he is someone I have known of through the industry for years and more recently on a personal level with his professional input to helping me with my own recruitment company. This book is an insight in to the level of expertise Roy has within our industry, and his ability to encourage our recruiters to get the most out of everything they do. It is a fabulous read, it will increase your billings and I will without doubt be sharing it with my own team.

Just purchased the new book of Roy Ripper... a phenomenal coach and mentor in the Recruitment industry acting worldwide. This material is spot on for every organisation or individual looking to understand the keys of a successful recruitment process. The generosity of Roy, his knowledge acquired over all these years of recruitment and managerial practice, is highly reflected in all the pages of this book. His ability to turn complex into simplicity is amazing and that's way this book can deliver reading keys at every level of your seniority in the business, whether you recruit often or occasionally. To cut it short : ONE that you must have in your library!

There are two ways to learn about real recruitment. Either by trial and error or by reading this excellent book and saving yourself lots of money, time and sanity. Roy Ripper is a subject matter expert and this book seconds that.

This certainly supports my Recruitment Master Minds subscription and your training events. My consultants have a copy each and are already reaping the benefits! The book helps keep our consultants focused on a quality of service and professional recruitment methods whilst ensuring they are efficient and profitable. Thank you
