The Rival Bride - Can Betrayal and Sacrifice Lead to Love? Kristine is the eldest of three sisters, and she would do anything to keep them safe, but could she do this? Their mother died many years ago which turned their father to drink and gambling. Now their fortune is gone and soon her sisters must leave their finishing school. What will happen to them? Where will they live? What will they eat? Will they be thrown onto the streets? When her father tells her what he has done, she feels her heart break. It is preposterous to think that he would sell her to a man just to pay off his gambling debts. But what choice does she have? Keeping her pride she makes a deal with him and sets off to the Wild West to become nothing more than a maid and a wife in name only. Letters of Love - sent across the miles, should a young girl follow her heart? Courtney hates finishing school and all through her lessons all she can see is Clifton Grahamâ ™s mischievous eyes. Should she leave school and go find the man she loves? But what does he say in his letters? Thought the language is poetic, is he offering her marriage? After a terrible incident Courtney sets off with her sister Patricia to find out if Clifton will marry her. But after Clifton snubs her what is she to do? She must face a storm, an angry brother-in-law and an ultimatum at gunpoint.

Mail Order Husband - The year is 1888 and a strong woman waits with baited breath. Abby watched her best friend, and only love interest marry a Mail Order Bride. What is she to do? For five years she has lived as a widow. She has kept her ranch going and become stronger than she can imagine. But danger lurks around every corner and her cattle are going missing. Could it be the drought, or is there something more sinister afoot? Will the man who steps off the train be the answer to all her dreams or will her nightmare continue?

The Japanese Bride â “ A Lonely Heart Sails West Rena is lonely and prospects are poor in her Japanese village. When her grandmother tells her she sees great things for Rena it further ostracizes her from her sisters. She is drawn to an advert from an American gentleman, but will she find love or simply more heartache in another land. Frightened and all alone Rena sets sail to a strange new land?

Customer Reviews

This is a four box set of western romances about strong men and even stronger women that settled the west. The women came to find the love of a lifetime. Each is a short novella that is very enjoyable. I love Ms. Wake's writing style. The Rival Bride Book 1 This is the first story in this four box set. Kristine is a young woman with a gambling father that has practically sold her to a Robert Miller, a rancher and widower still in love with his dead wife, as a bride. In exchange he will pay her fathers debts and enable her 2 sisters, Courtney and Patricia, to stay in finishing school. This novella is full of sorrow, jealousy, insecurity, sadness, and finally joy in the morning. Ms. Wake filled this story with emotion and she added an adversary, Abby, for Robert's affections. Though short this story was very enjoyable as we watch Kristine grow and Robert find he has a jewel in Kristine; they find there happy ever after. Had the story been longer Ms. Wake could have fleshed out the story of the rivalry for Robert's affections; this was still a short enjoyable read. Letters of Love Book 2 Courtney, Kristine seventeen-year-old sister, is the star of this story. Court is in love for the first of her life; Curly, Abby's ranch hand, has been writing love letters to her. She and Patricia ran away from school and went back to her sister's and Robert's ranch; she's ready to marry Curly. What a surprise awaits Courtney. Ms. Wake portrayed the emotions of a seventeen year old so well; impetuous, immature, and thinking only of themselves. Kristine is very disappointed in Courtney, Curly says it all a joke not be taken serious, and Courtney is heartbroken. I loved the scenario Ms. Wake set for this story.
