Bestselling author ("Presentation Secrets of Steve Jobs," "Innovation Secrets of Steve Jobs," and "The Apple Experience") and communications expert, Carmine Gallo, has switched his focus from the "secrets" of Steve Jobs and Apple to the presentation secrets of TED's (technology, education, and design) exceptional speakers. TED talks which began as a one-time event in 1984 are now viewed daily on TED.com by over 1.5 million people from all over the world. "Talk Like TED" is based on the author's scientific analysis of hundreds of presentations, direct interviews with TED's most popular speakers, and personal insights gleaned from years of coaching inspiring leaders. From this, Gallo has identified the nine secrets common to all who are exceptionally good at presenting their ideas. They are grouped under three major headings - the presenter touches my heart, the presenter teaches me something new, and he/she presents content in ways I'll never forget. Subtopics include: 1. Unleashing the master within 2. Mastering the art of storytelling 3. Having a conversation 4. Teaching something new 5. Delivering jaw-dropping moments 6. Lightening up 7. Sticking to the 18 minute rule 8. Painting a mental picture with multisensory experiences 9. Staying in your lane Each chapter explores the science behind the featured secret, and features a specific technique shared by the most popular Ted speakers. Examples, web sites, and interviews with the speakers are also included. The roles played by passion, authenticity, memorability, novelty, and shock (and more) are thoroughly discussed and are provided in a "how to" format will help anyone seeking to become "Ted-like" - a speaker with perceived confidence and authority.
