Customer Reviews

This book will explain many of the questions raised in the previous 3 books, as well as to help the reader to better understand the characters. I think this is Genevieve's best book yet. The cover and the title are stunning! So much happens in this book, that it is hard to put it down. I cheered Paige on, as she tried to walk out her new-found faith, especially when she said: "I have too much going for me right now to allow anything from the past to keep me from being who God wants me to be." One of my favorite quotes is: "God may not come when you want it, but He is always on time." But the book will keep you waiting for what will happen next in this series! I received an ARC copy for my honest review.

An Amazing addition to this Intriguing series, 'The Greatest Love'. I was ecstatic to get the back stories on the lives of the characters in this series and truly understand why they are who they are. This series continues to give readers a fictional view of true life situations that occur in and out of the church. Gene Woods again displays her talents as a writer and her ability to allow her characters to come to life and speak to the reader as if they are personally sitting down next to with you and in conversation. I can't wait to experience what's to come in the next installment from this series. Please tell me that there is much more to come.T

Wow! In book four we were informed how everything started. At first I thought why in the world are we going that far back, but it was well worth the read. We found out the foundation for each character and it was easy to follow. There were no character or name mixups. The ending of this installment is a cliffhanger and opening to the next book. This is a must read, but please start with book 1.

I love, love, loved this series!!! There has to be a book 5!!!! G. Woods has quickly become one of my favorite authors!!! Thank you woman of God for keeping it real...& classy at the same time! I love when you say your books are not for the perfect, but for those walking out their salvation. We all fall short. But God!!!!!! Thanks for always encouraging thru ur books. May God continue to use u!!!

Once again Author Genevieve Woods has a hit in the Greatest Love Series book four. She gave us the backstory of her characters starting in the eighties and brought it to current day. It was interesting to learn how it all started with the Owens boys and even with opportunities how you can still take the wrong road. How love at first sight does exist. We now understand the whole story behind Julia and Paige. I can't believe that Julia did that and carried the lie for so long. I hope her husband finds it in his heart to forgive her. I feel a little sorry for Aunt Jane and I do hope that Raige can turn to Paige for Aunt Jane eventually. Congratulations to Ben and Camille. The ending with Author Chloe helping Tabitha see the signs. I can't wait for the next part. And finally you truly blessed me and gave me a new favorite scripture in Psalm 139. I REALLY needed to read that.

Thanks again Author Woods for your grand slam homerun.

After now completing the 4th book in this series, in 24 hours, I must admit I am hooked on Ms. Woods' writing. Again, she goes into many issues relationships face on a day-to-day basis. I loved all her books and I am amazed at how she weaves the past in with the current lives of her characters. Cannot wait for her next title to be published!
