Its hard to believe these lectures are 50+ years old. There is absolutely no sense of these tracks being dated in any way. I can listen to the same lecture/episode/track over and over again; like others, I just like listening to his voice. I was already familiar with AW as I used to have some of his tapes in my car in a previous era. Very few lemons in this bunch, in fact, perhaps only two or three out of the 100+ sections. Best investment I've made in some time. Its difficult to summarize the content. Perhaps a simple table of contents would be useful (sure wish would make a habit of publishing these!).
